Highly competitive high school seniors who are interested in Air Force ROTC scholarship opportunities can check out the program and apply at www.afrotc.com. Different scholarship levels include up to full-ride tuition. The deadline to apply is Jan. 14, 2021. Applying for a scholarship does not commit a student to enter Air Force ROTC. Students who are selected and accept an Air Force ROTC scholarship their freshman year do not become committed to the Air Force until the first day of their sophomore year. This means students may accept a scholarship during their freshman year and decide during that year to leave the program with no commitment and no repayment of scholarship money before the beginning of the second year if they decide Air Force ROTC is not for them. Students should also be aware that in-college scholarship opportunities are available to cadets who join the program without a scholarship. For more information or to learn about how to join Air Force ROTC in the St. Louis area, please contact Captain Beau Downey at afrotc@slu.edu.
